

Paper Crafts around the World

A colorful, fun and creatively inspiring array of paper-crafted artwork from many countries, plus multicultural paper crafting and papercut illustrated story books. Please note –no raw crafts supplies are included.

Appropriate for Kindergarten - Adult

Highlights: Papier Mache, Paper Cuts, and three-dimensional paper artworks from across the world. Exotic papers: Japanese Wood Veneer, Mexican Amate, Egyptian Papyrus, Fijian Tapa, Himalayan Lokta, and even paper made by insects. CMLC Info Cards provide interesting histories of all items.

Also included: CRAFT INSTRUCTION BOOKS on Origami, Mexican Paper Cutting, Paper Crafts around the World, and contemporary paper crafts.

Paper Cut STORYBOOKS (some with craft instructions) include “All in a Day” (illustrated by Pacific Northwest artist Nikki McClure), “Drawing with Scissors” (about artist Henri Matisse) and traditional folk stories.

Additional materials you might like to provide when using the kit: Tissue or construction paper & scissors to make paper cuts; Origami papers; Old newspapers, balloons, white glue & paints to create papier mache; Plain paper and pens or crayons to fold “cootie catchers”, or Construction paper for other paper crafts.

This Culture Exploration Kit was made possible through generous support from: Malia Becker Jiahui Chen, Kaitlin Fraser Hevlin, Risa Imamura, Valentine Taylor, Heartland Humane Society Thrift Shop, OSU Folk Club Thrift Shop, CMLC Volunteers & Donors, Wikipedia & Wikimedia Commons

Sample items from the Paper Crafts around the World Culture Exploration Kit