

Tea

Large kit exploring the spread of this iconic drink from culture to culture across the globe.

Interesting and beautiful Tea serving pieces from Asia, Northern Africa, Europe and the U.S., modern and antique items, examples of things different cultures add to their tea, tea history, customs and lore. Includes CMLC Info Cards with intriguing facts and cultural histories on each item, books and articles appropriate for children and for adults, maps and music CD.

Highlights: Moroccan tea service, Vintage Japanese see-through Lithopane teacup, pressed tea branch from Corvallis, Tea Bricks, 1900's Portland World Fair souvenir teacup. No "drinkable" tea included.

Appropriate for older Middle School through Adult

This Culture Exploration Kit made possible by generous donations from: The Cat's Meow Thrift Shop Volunteers and Patrons, Many Hands Trading, LLC, OSU Folk Club Thrift Shop, Joanne Apter, Lucy Dauman, Anne Hansen, Josie Heathman, Trudy Rich, Helen Kapeli, CMLC volunteers and donors

Additional materials you might like to provide for older students/users: Cups, hot water and teas for tasting. For a more elaborate tasting, add-ins of sugar, lemon, milk, chai spices, salt, butter and jam.

Sample items from the Tea culture kit