

“The Cultures of the Philippines” Culture Exploration Kit

sample items from the kit

Large kit that includes beautiful examples of vintage and contemporary handmade items from the Philippines, along with Filipino pop culture items.

Highlights: Beautifully made vintage apparel and household items showcasing not only Filipino culture, but an array of common and unusual weaving materials: cotton, straw, palm fiber, pineapple fiber, abaca fiber, coconut fiber, and recycled disposable juice boxes. Also includes a widely varied selection of utilitarian and aesthetic items made from all different parts of the coconut palm. Instructions and materials for a variety of entertaining children’s games, including Teks cards with vivid graphics drawn from Filipino pop culture showing cultural influences from Japan, Hong Kong and the USA as well as local media. information cards on the background of each item;

Age suggestions: Kindergarten –Adult

This Culture Exploration Kit was made possible by generous support from: Jeannine Cook, Martha Foster, Kaitlin Fraser Hevlin, Megan Rice , Barb Whitney, OSU Folk Club Thrift Shop, Spirit Mountain Community Fund, CMLC Volunteers and Donors, WikiFilipino, Wikipedia & Wikimedia Commons