Note from the Executive Director

Dear friends, families, and community members of the CMLC,
This report is not only about celebrating numbers and programs. This year in particular, we celebrate the incredible resilience, courage, and determination of every person who has walked through the doors of the CMLC. You remind us every day, that growing justice and belonging is not just an idea, but the very lived reality that we are nurturing together.

This report does not share the whole story (otherwise it would be 10x as large!). We've had at least 10 individuals achieve their Citizenship and vote for the first time and we provided over 20 individuals with the opportunity to teach workshops and give back to their community. Our partnerships have grown in number and strengthened in resolve, and we have continued to adapt to the evolving needs of our community through a variety of unique and needed ways.

The future looms with challenges: funding for non-profits has seen drastic impacts; the demand for service far outweighs our current capacity, and our community faces unprecedented situations of stress and fear. The path ahead is as uncertain as it has ever been...but we persist, and we will always strive to find the most loving way forward in any unloving situation.

The seeds of change are already planted. Thank you for being part of the CMLC; each and every one of you has contributed to the life-changing impacts of this center. Thank you for showing us each day what a just and loving community looks like. Thank you, for all that you do.

Take care,

Cassady Gilroy, CMLC's Executive Director

Closing Remarks

Corvallis Multicultural Literacy Center helps individuals and families adapt, thrive, and belong in their new home. Through accessible English classes, citizenship tutoring, legal support, and welcoming community programs, we're here to break barriers and build connections.

We are so grateful for the incredible support we've received from the community over the years. This year marks CMLC's 20th anniversary, and as we look back, we're proud of all that has been accomplished—thanks to you!

To our donors, teachers, volunteers, community partners, and grantors: thank you. Your generosity and dedication have made it possible for us to create a welcoming space and provide vital services to our community.

But our work isn't done. The need continues to grow, and we are working to expand our English class offerings and increase the availability of our Immigration Legal Clinic.

You can help us make this happen—donate today at cmlcenter.org or consider volunteering.

Together, we can continue building a stronger, more connected community!
